

CONCERT: Pilot meets Oceantied, 4th May at 8:30 pm

Pilot is a trio of «Trans-Improvised» which is composed of the flautist Florian Guibert, the double bassist Cyrille de Haes and the drummer Jean-Philippe De Gheest. Influenced by complementary musical influences (jazz, rock, world and electronic music) the 3 accomplished musicians let go of all musical apprehensions while playing and surrender to the joys of spontaneous composition. In search of new sensations, this powerful trio seeks the imaginary and exchange.

Oceantied is the solo electronic project started by Until We Last guitarist Ketan Bahirat and is an exploration of Ketan's electronic music headspace. Oceantied's music can be ambient, dancey, upbeat or anything in between. His music explores two main sides of the spectrum with downtempo tracks, alongside fast-paced footwork & jungle music.

Venue: The Humming Tree

THEATRE: Emil's Enemies, 7th and 8th May at 3:30 pm & 7:30 pm

Emil's Enemies is a play around the last assassination attempt on Adolf Hitler. Emil was the code name given by the German underground for Hitler. Many senior military officers were part of the underground. There were numerous attempts to assassinate Hitler. All of them failed. Many of the assassination plots involved an officer in the German Military Intelligence, Hans von Dohnanyi. The group included a Lutheran priest, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, who went on to become one of the greatest icons of Protestant theology. This internationally acclaimed play is by an American playwright, Prof. Douglas Huff, who holds two faculty positions – one in playwriting and one in philosophy. Prof. Huff will be in Bengaluru for the performances.

Tickets on Bookmyshow:

<https://in.bookmyshow.com/plays/emils-enemies/ET00040622>

Venue: Alliance Française auditorium

EXHIBITION: Le Corbusier, the Play of Light, 12th to 29th May all day

Ajay Bhatia is a documentary photographer from Chandigarh engaged in travel, event and architectural photography. His works explore the contemporary spirit and lifestyle of modern cities and the traditional essence, heritage and culture of historical cities, towns and villages of India. He is also interested in documenting the rhythms, colors and energy of the traditional dance, music and folk art of India.

The present exhibition is his third exhibition in as many years.

Venue: Alliance Française Atrium

AF CINEMA: Bird People, 13th May at 6:30 pm

Pascale Ferran – 2012 – Action drama – 2h7mins

In an airport hotel on the outskirts of Paris, a Silicon Valley engineer abruptly chucks his job, breaks things off with his wife, and holes up in his room. Soon, fate draws him and a young French maid together. Audrey, a student, works as a hotel maid. In the same hotel Gary Newman, an American business man visiting Paris deliberately misses his flight and decides to quit his job, divorce his wife and remain in Paris.

Free and open to all // Subtitled in English

Venue: Alliance Française auditorium

PLAY READING: “8” The Play by Dustin Lance Black, 15th May at 5:00 pm

On the occasion of the International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia, and Biphobia on May 17th, AFB and BLT would like to invite you to the reading of the play “8” by Dustin Lance Black.

The play attempts to demystify the debate around marriage equality, set a historical context to marriage, show the human cost of discrimination and uncover the arguments used to justify bans on marriage for same sex couples.

Venue: Alliance Française classroom 7

AF COOKOUT: Desserts with Cyril NICOLAI, 17th May at 1:00 pm

Voilà a perfect recipe for any occasion ... or for any greedy envy! This Charlotte au chocolat holds many secrets that our chef Cyril is eager to unveil mount whites, use chocolate , make a syrup and for sure a chocolate mousse as well the famous 'Lady Finger' biscuits. With this course you will become the Best Pastry for sure! Enjoy this time with us on 16th May.

Organised in collaboration with Café Noir Restaurants, this will be a monthly affair with different themes for each session.

AF Students and members: 500 INR; Others: 1000 INR Limited seats.

For registration: thierry@cafenoir.co.in or communication.bangalore@afindia.org

Venue: Alliance Française cafeteria

CINE FORUM MELIES: Radiostars, 26th May at 7:00 pm

Romain Levy – 2011 – Comédie– 1h40mins

Ben is in full professional failure as well as sentimental: he who dreamed of becoming a comedian in New York returned “empty-handed” in Paris. He meets Alex, co-host of a morning star on the Blast FM radio, the Breakfast Club. Alex is surrounded by Cyril, an irresponsible man in his forties, and Arnold, popular band leader. Ben is hired to write skits. But it’s when a tidal wave suddenly shakes the station: the listeners on Breakfast Club are plummeting. The radio then sends the band in a bus to roam the roads of France to win back their audience ...

Free and open to all // Subtitled in English

Venue: Alliance Française auditorium