

French Film – Maestro by Léa Fazer, 7th August from 7:00 pm to 8:15 pm

2014, Léa Fazer, 81 minutes

Henry, a young actor, finds himself cast in a movie by the legendary independent filmmaker Cédric Rovère. Even though the conditions during the shoot aren't quite what Henri expected, he is won over by the charms of his on-screen partner and the generosity of the master filmmaker, and emerges transformed by the experience. Rovère is also won over by Henri's eager imagination and youthful spirit, and views the film shoot as an unexpected gift.

French Film – 3 Coeurs / 3 Hearts by Benoît Jacquot, 14th August from 7:00 pm to 8:45 pm

2014, Benoît Jacquot, 106 minutes

One night, after missing his train back to Paris, Marc finds himself stranded in a provincial town. Here he meets an attractive woman named Sylvie and the two wander around the town until the early hours, talking about everything but themselves. Before he takes the first train back to the capital, Marc arranges to meet up with Sylvie in Paris in a few days' time. Even though she knows nothing about Marc and he knows nothing about her, Sylvie goes to the place where they agreed to meet, but Marc is not there. Circumstances prevent Marc from reaching the rendezvous. Looking for Sylvie, he encounters another woman named Sophie, and doesn't realise that she is Sylvie's sister...
